

Code of Ethics and Conduct

This Code of Ethics and Conduct applies to all those involved in the sport of basketball under the jurisdiction of Basketball England. All such individuals have a responsibility to act according to the highest standards of integrity, and to ensure that the reputation of basketball is beyond reproach.

The most relevant information has been included in this policy. For the full policy as produced by Basketball England, please click here.

General principles

All those involved in basketball must treat everyone equally and sensitively regardless of age, disability, gender, race, ethnic origin, cultural or social background, sexual orientation, religious belief, political affiliation, or any other personal characteristic/feature. Basketball England is opposed to any form of violent, offensive, or discriminatory behaviour and will act as necessary to remove individuals from basketball who do not abide by this Code of Ethics and Conduct.

Everyone involved in basketball, both adults and young people have a responsibility to treat everyone with dignity, respect, sensitivity, and fairness. Be aware of the special needs of young people and vulnerable adults and recognise that some face additional barriers.

Every young person or vulnerable adult involved in the game of basketball should be able to participate in an enjoyable and safe environment and be protected from abuse. Allegations of a child protection nature relating to the breaking of this Code of Ethics and Conduct must follow the reporting procedures as contained in the Basketball England Child Protection Policy and Procedures.

1. Coaches

This Code of Ethics and Conduct is an integral part of the Basketball England Coach Education Programme within which all coaches must work. It should be used in conjunction with all other Basketball England policies, procedures or recognised standards. Through this Code of Ethics and Conduct, coaches who are affiliated to Basketball England must accept their responsibility to the participants, their parents and families, to coaching and to Basketball England affiliated associations.

All affiliated coaches agree to:

- Consider the safety and wellbeing of all individuals in their charge;
- Ensure their behaviour is not misconstrued or open to allegations of favouritism, misconduct, or impropriety;
- Follow guidance on good practice when working with young people/vulnerable adults and report any concerns for their wellbeing to the relevant authority or body;
- Uphold the appropriate boundaries in the working relationship between coach and player – especially when one person is aged under 18 years of age or a vulnerable adult. While the coach-player relationship exists, the coach should not only refrain from initiating a relationship, but should also discourage any attempt by a player to initiate an intimate relationship, explaining the ethical basis of the refusal;
- Ensure that all training and playing demands are not detrimental to the wellbeing of the players and are reasonable dependent upon the age, maturity, experience and ability of the players;
- Ensure their competence and ability is sufficient so that the safety of players is not compromised;
- Encourage players to accept responsibility for their own behaviour and performance;

- Be appropriately qualified as per the requirements of the Basketball England Coach Education Programme and regularly seek opportunities for continued professional development;
- Respect the rights of players to choose to decline to participate within coaching or playing situations; never put a player on court if they are injured or unfit to do so
